

Moosh Grooming Allegations

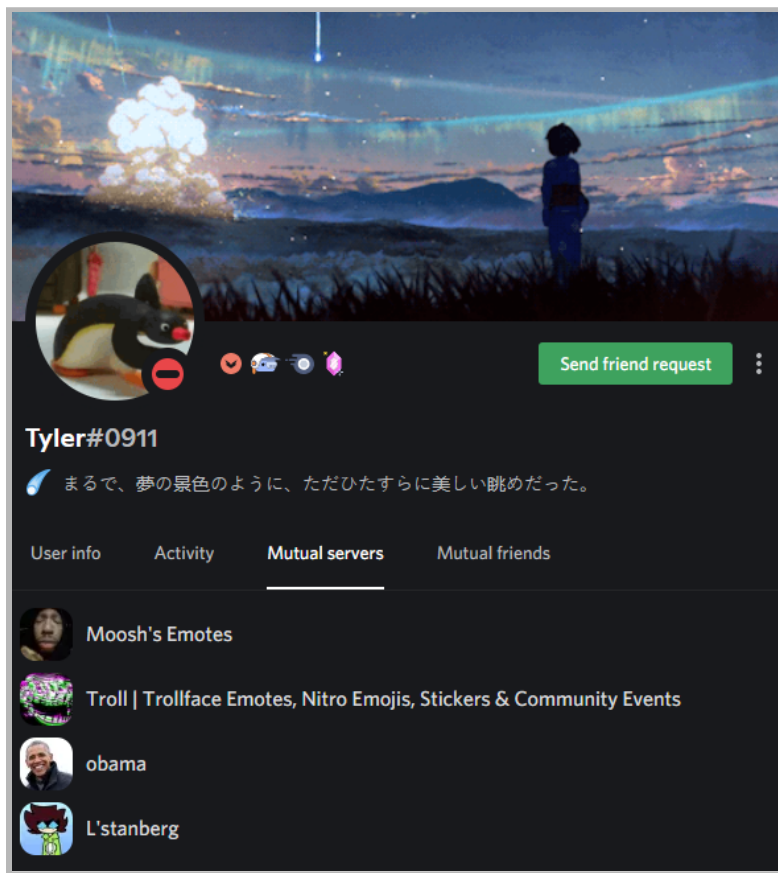

[Preface]

The contents of this document are intended to provide insight into the alleged irresponsible and atrocious actions committed by the owner of discord.gg/troll, a popular community & gimmick Discord server. The individual in question, moosh#6969, better known simply as Moosh, is the sole founder of the server; he is ultimately at the height of control. Recently, there have been some unembellished serious allegations against Moosh involving sexual & romantic relations with a 15 year old; Moosh is aged 20. The purpose behind the document is not only to inform, but to reiterate these claims and prove them to be true. All feasible proof has been attached, though some individuals will be left anonymous. Please read everything in its entirety.

[Background & Information]

Moosh is currently aged 20 and lives in the Netherlands. His partner (aged 15) lives in the United States. While legality and consent laws are of stark contrast in either areas, it doesn't take much to see the issue. Moosh and his partner are hardly public about their relationship, and Moosh has denied its prevalence numerous times. It's unclear specifically if the relationship is inherently sexual, but receipts within this document certainly allude to that. This behavior was also enabled by his friends, as evident by several .gg/troll admins actively going to bat for Moosh and defending his actions. The screenshot on the right was acquired through a former .gg/troll admin. Tyler is a co-owner of .gg/troll. Moosh's partner is also not nearly 16; this is untrue. There have been many times in which Moosh's relationship with a 15 year old has been a topic of controversy among the staff team, though some left the server upon realization that their relationship was also sexual. Attached is a prime example.

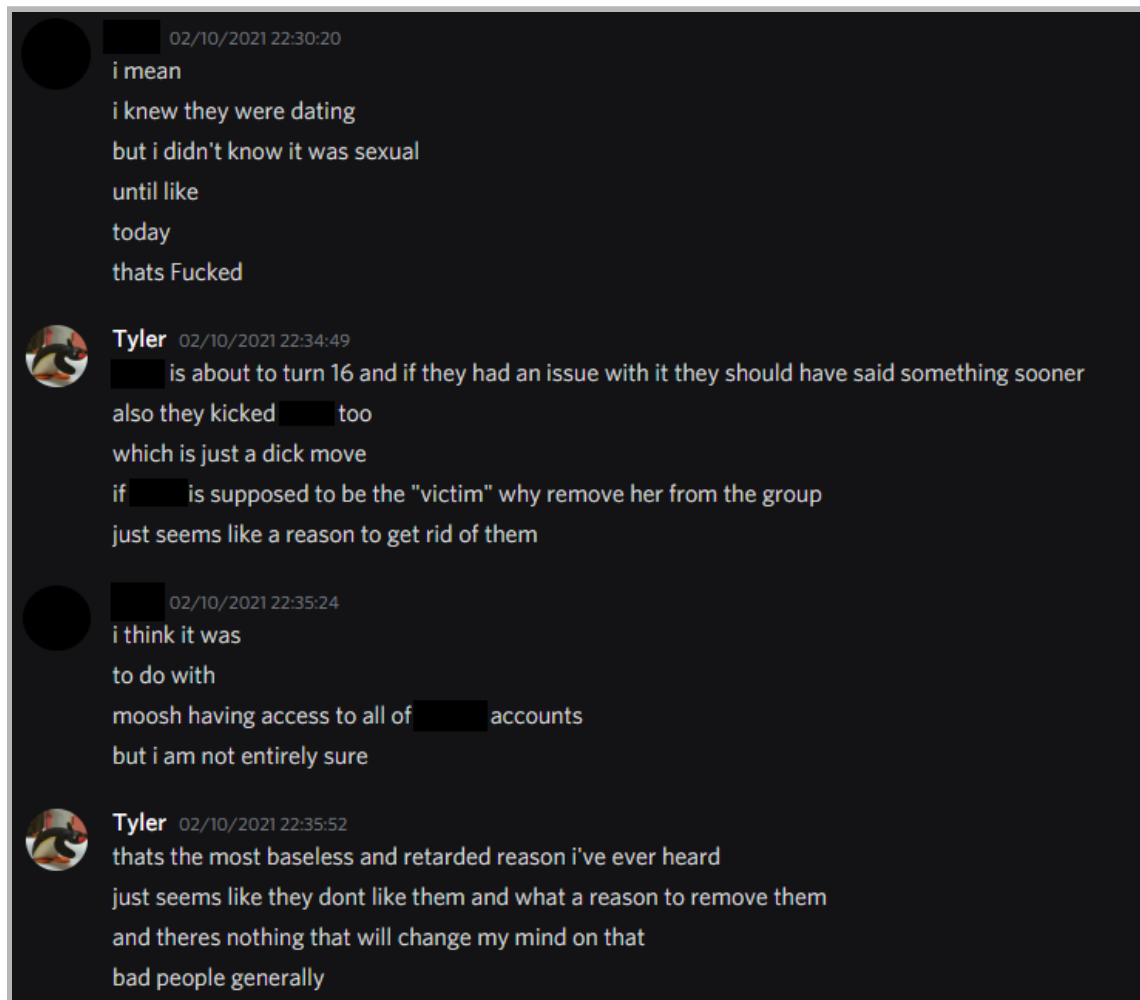

(Tyler is co-owner of the Troll Discord, and currently at the highest position of power.)

(This was his reaction when Moosh was banned from a server due to his relationship with the victim.)

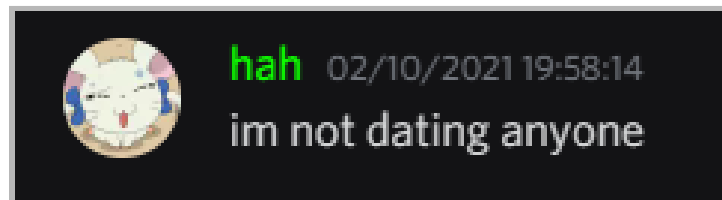

(Some were unaware of the relationship's sexual nature. It was also revealed that Moosh has access to the victim's Steam and Discord accounts [including 2FA/backup codes]).

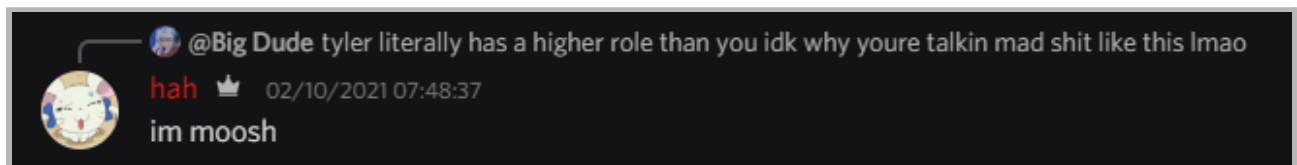

(A common rebuttal was simply denying the relationship, but Moosh confirmed it himself multiple times. By virtue of the victim being 15, it was not public to the vast majority of the Troll Server.)

[The Purge of the Troll Discord]

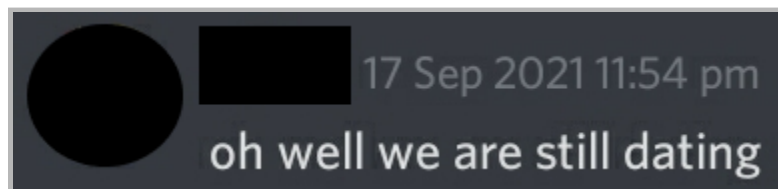

Recently, every public and accessible channel was archived by staff; this was to prevent mass-flagging incidents involving Moosh, as well as the generally toxic environment the server emitted. Alongside this, Moosh's personal emotes server (discord.gg/moosh) was similarly purged. While not entirely related to leaks regarding Moosh's relationship with the victim, this was ultimately another motive for the mass-archival. Moosh has consistently denied his relationship with the victim as well, going as far as to state that he's single (why would Moosh deny this if he thought his actions were morally just?).

("hah" is a known alt-account of Moosh.)

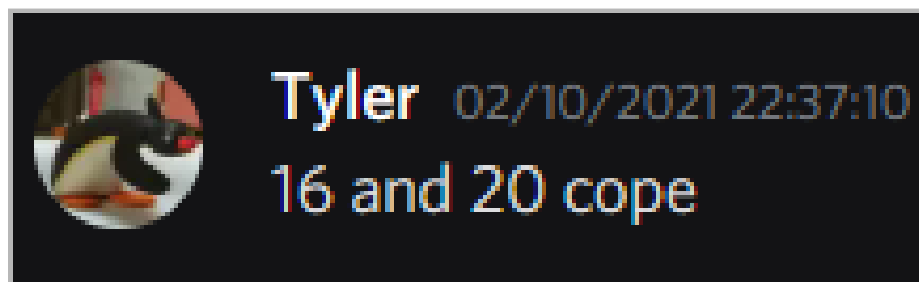

(Also confirmed by Moosh himself; note the crown next to his name indicating admin.)

(This is a message from the victim confirming their relationship.)

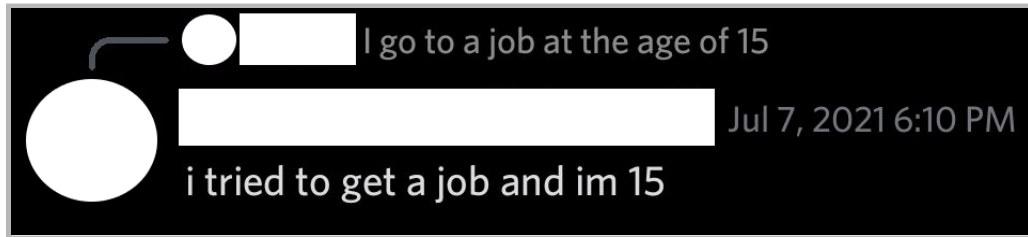

It's unclear when the server will return to its prior state, but given that Moosh's account is currently suspended (for an entirely unrelated reason), it's likely that it won't be any time soon. The majority of the Troll Discord's staff team also were banned upon finding out about Moosh's status of his relationship (given that it wasn't just for emotional support, but also sexual); the vast majority of staff that remain are either clueless or on Moosh's side.

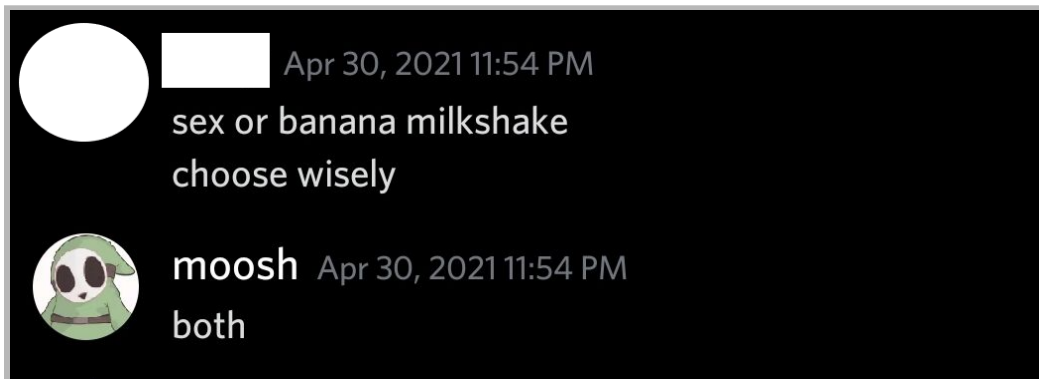

[Conclusion]

We (being the individuals responsible for this document) have acquired each and every message ID for the attached screenshots, and will be sending them off to Discord's Trust & Safety team in hopes of further consequence. We've no intention of starting a feud, but we do feel it's integral and of urgency that all of the above information is made public. Document written by @suwnL, with help from a few others.

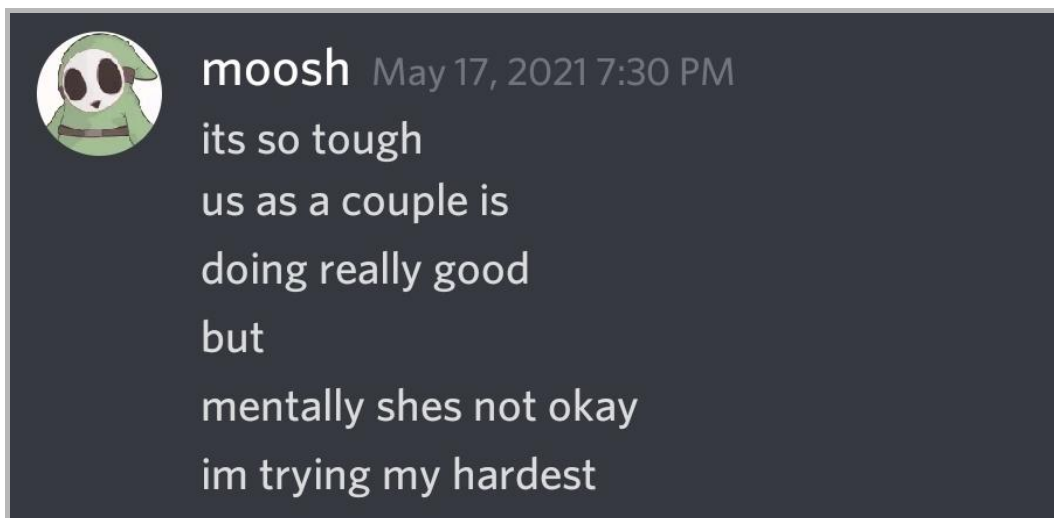

[Additional Proof]

(The victim's admission to being 15 years old [this took place in the Troll Server]).
